Intro to Ground Driving Clinic

From Lyn Wray

On Sunday April 24th, 2016, the WPCAO held an Introduction to Ground Driving Clinic, held at Beaverwoods Farms. Clinician, Kirsten Brunner, demonstrated how to start your pony, with very good explanations for all us whom are new to training and driving. We had hands-on practice of properly tacking and un-tacking of the harness, how to use the reins properly and how to hold and use the whip for driving. Everyone had the opportunity to practice ground driving with two lovely Beaverwood ponies.

We would like to thank Kirsten and Kilby for such an enjoyable morning!

WPCAO High Point Rules Revision 2016

Rules:

You must be a member of the Welsh Pony and Cob Association of Ontario and attend at least two shows to be eligible. You may attend as many shows as you like but only submit points from your best five shows.

All participants must record their own points on the Tally Sheet and are responsible for submitting them. The deadline for submission is the Friday following the RAWF. All submissions must be mailed, emailed or hand delivered. Submissions will not be accepted by phone. No points will be accepted after the deadline.

The following shows are eligible for high point submission: Caledon Fair, The Canadian All Welsh Show, The Welsh Classic, Sutton Fair, Lindsay Fair, Arthur Fall Fair, Markham Fair, Brampton Fair, Erin Fair and The Royal Winter Fair breeding classes.

In the event of a tie, the exhibitor or pony with the most first place wins will be given the award. The decision of the board of directors of the WPCAO is final in determining winners of high point awards.

Eligible classes for high point awards are basic breed classes for Sections A, B, C, D. Championship classes and special classes do not count towards high points. In the performance division classes to count will be basic driving, under saddle classes and Equitation.

Command, and stake classes do not count towards high points.

In all divisions the high point awards are awarded to the animal, not the exhibitor with the exception of Showmanship, Equitation and the Junior awards.

No performance classes from The Royal Winter Fair shall count towards the WPCAO high points.

Farm News

From Ammie Reid,

Here are some pictures of our two unbelievable, awesome Section B Welsh. It's both their first show under saddle and the we're like old pros. We showed everyone how great Welsh Ponies are, way to go Welsh!

The black mare is 9 year old Bothwell Manor Milky Way and rider, Allora Reid at their first show under saddle together. Showing in the walk trot classes.

The chestnut gelding is 5 year old Bothwell Manor E.A.Poe, showing in a huge youth division over cross rails and flat classes, against all kinds of horses with Sophie Searle. Never put a foot out of place. It was also Poe's first show under saddle after being started 3 months ago
